Dear ■

Congratulations! Welcome to the LL.M. Class of 2014. I am very pleased to offer you admission to the Graduate Division of New York University School of Law as a candidate for the Master of Laws in the full-time traditional program for the Fall 2013 semester.

You were chosen from a group of highly-talented applicants, among the most competitive in our history. With your outstanding academic record and professional and personal achievements, you have earned this opportunity to learn from our extraordinary faculty, whose scholarship and expertise influence every aspect of legal thought and practice.

NYU's long tradition of excellence in graduate legal education has secured its position at the top of American law schools, a position enhanced by innovative approaches to the study of law in a global context. When you choose NYU Law, you live and study among classmates from more than 50 countries at our charming and vibrant Greenwich Village campus, located at the heart of one of the world's most remarkable cities.

We encourage you to visit the Admitted Students Website and review the materials that accompany our offer of admission. There you will preview what it's like to be a part of our dynamic intellectual community.

Again, congratulations and welcome to the NYU School of Law.

Sincerely,

Director of Graduate Admissions
